In such event, any Absentee ballots not voted for either of the final two (2) candidates shall be excluded from the count for purposes of establishing a majority in the run-off election. If no one receives a majority, that is there is a tie, then the decision is made with a toss of the coin by the Chairperson of the Election Committee.

d. Absentee ballots shall be made available to anyone requesting a ballot from the Chairperson of the Election Committee either by letter or email at least fourteen (14) days before the date of the Contested Election.
